Quality-assured research and evidence from the i-HOP knowledge hub

The following pieces of research all relate to children of offenders and are listed on the i-HOP knowledge hub. Each piece has been assessed using the i-HOP Quality Assessment Tool and awarded quality icon/s for excellence across four areas: Methodological quality, Child-centredness, and Relevance to policy/strategy concerning children of offenders, Relevance to practice with the children of offenders. Items of particularly high quality in an area received an icon with a +.

KEY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Methodological Quality</th>
<th>Methodological Quality+</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Child-centredness</td>
<td>Child-centredness+</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Relevance to Policy/Strategy</td>
<td>Relevance to Policy/Strategy+</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Relevance to Practice</td>
<td>Relevance to Practice+</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

RESEARCH & EVIDENCE

Barnardo’s Strategy Unit (2014) The Impact of Family Involvement in the Criminal Justice System (Non-Imprisonment) on Children’s Outcomes. Essex: Barnardo’s.

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Goldsmith, C. (2017) At the end of the line- Independent Evaluation of the Pact Helpline

---

i-HOP

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families
Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

London: Thames Valley Partnership.

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

O'Malley, S. and Devaney, C. ‘Supporting incarcerated mothers in Ireland with their familial relationships; a case for the revival of the social work role’, Probation Journal 1 – 17.

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Sharratt, K., Christmann, K., Perry, S. and Sutherland, L. (2017) The role of online knowledge hubs in developing practice and policy: Lessons from i-HOP for professionals working with children and families affected by parental offending.

Supporting all professionals to work with offenders’ children and their families

Woodall, J. (2014) "It was just like we were a family again’: play as a means to maintain family ties for children visiting an imprisoned parent’, International Journal of Play, Volume 3 (2), 169 – 181.